Through famous literary excerpts by the likes of Courteline, Sacha Guitry, Colette, and Jacques Prévert, punctuated by the musical richness of Yves Montand, Edith Piaf and more, the performers will shepherd the audience through decades of evolutionary role changes for a man and a woman in an amorous relationship. From the constraints imposed by the “bourgeoisie” at the turn of the last century, through the trauma of world wars, and all the way to the freedom-seeking explosion of the late sixties, the woman carves a new space for herself within the couple, and the couple struggles to find and maintain its bearings, but... universal love endures forever!

As André Nerman tells us:

“Ils se découvrent à travers le tango, la valse, ...Ils vont essayer de comprendre les pas de l'autre... Ils vont traverser les années, ...s'amuser, rêver, chanter...danser bien sûr... Du rire, de l'émotion, de la poésie. Des grands textes, de la danse et de la musique. Un tourbillon de sentiments.”

Come prepared to savor the poetry, delight in the dance, relish the music, and most definitely enjoy the humor!
